The children could hardly contain their excitement: In a few minutes a helicopter would be landing, bringing an east coast television personality to Belle Glade to talk about the weather.

For some unexplained reason, however, the helicopter and its TV weather man never landed at Lakeshore Elementary School Friday, March 20, but that didn't stop 500 children from filling the Glades sky with helium-filled balloons about 11:30 a.m. to conclude their Weekly Reader: Writing Pals Balloon Contest.

Fifth grade teacher Andrea Labelle coordinated the contest locally, a program which taught the LES fifth and sixth graders a little bit about social studies, weather and math.

Friday morning started early for Ms. Labelle, who at 6:45 a.m. began inflating 500 balloons with the help of LES Assistant Principal Barbara Case and two tanks of helium donated by David Rhims of Lake Welding of Belle Glade.

Some of the students arrived about 7 a.m. to lend a hand with the tying.

Ms. Labelle noted the program cost the school nothing as Weekly Reader donated the balloons. The children's enthusiasm was evident and just like in some of those other launches which occur a little further north, the youngsters began counting in unison, "Three-one-two," releasing their balloons at once and filling the sky with a rainbow of color. They wished their balloons a long journey as the school which has the balloons traveling the farthest distance will receive a $500 reward from Weekly Reader.

In addition to a display of art by local elementary school children, the Belle Glade Public Library is launching other activities for the Black Gold Jubilee, librarian Phyllis Lilley said Friday.

An old book and magazine sale will be held Saturday, April 11, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Children's movies are being scheduled and Ms. Lilley is trying to line up one Walt Disney film. A puppet show is also being planned.

Group had delivered their lines to a receptive, laughing, applauding audience in a near perfect fashion.

But the topper came

Monday night. "I was standing at the rear of the room and laughing so hard I couldn't get up to get back stage," Dr. Russell said.

"I'm thrilled with the way it went. It's been funny and sometimes hilarious."

Russell was pleased with his entire group, including the supporting cast and the production crew.

"The entire group has done as close to a professional job as I could ask," he said.

James Montgomery and

Anita Adams were clearly the stars of the show.

They were responsible for about 60 of the plays 70

pages of dialogue.

Their performance was nearly flawless, showing fine comedic timing.

"Jim (Montgomery) is a fine actor. If he wants it he has a good future in acting. Anita is also very talented. Both could possibly have careers as actors," Russell said.

The supporting cast

included Byron Brayton,

Ann Youchock, Karen

Hansford, and Betty

McCormick.

Technical director and lighting conditioner was 12-year old James V.

Stedham. Gene Bair was the sound technician. Jose

Rivas was the stage manager.

Cyndi McKee the publicity director. Cathy

Leeman, recording secretarial assistant, Bertha

Stewart, off stage speaker and wardrobe manager, and Odisie Gilmore, prompting coordinator.

Dr. Russell promised the same careful research in selecting the group's next production as went into Prisoner of Second Avenue.

He said the next play would probably coincide with Palm Beach Junior College-Glades' opening of its cultural arts building.

The new building will be home to future presentations.

14th International Day

planned at library

Belle Glade Public Library will hold its 14th International Day Saturday, April 4, in its multi-purpose room. Egypt will be spotlighted.

India, Ethiopia, Ireland, Scotland, Spain, and China are some of the countries featured earlier.

As with the other African countries, however, Egypt presents a special challenge, due to the difficulty in finding recipes for that part of the world.

Food tasting is one of the highlights of all the International Days, says Librarian Phyllis Lilley. Typically, Ms. Lilley and her staff whip up three or four dishes of native food, which include fried foods, breads, desserts, and a vegetable dish. The staff tries to prepare foods which can be eaten neatly with the fingers.

In their hunt for recipes some unusual circumstances sometimes arise. During the spotlight on China, no recipe could be found for fortune cookies, leading the library staff to wonder about the authenticity of the after dinner oriental snack.

Fortunately, many African recipes are favored by entire regions, rather than in single countries. Ms. Lilley was able to find a middle eastern cookbook with a section on Egypt. The cookbook is being sent from West Palm Beach.

In addition to the food tasting treat, the library also scheduled movies on the culture and religion of a country. In the past, as few as five and as many as 25 persons, including adults and children, have attended International Days and Ms. Lilley would like to increase that number.

International Day will begin April 4 at noon.

A vote for succession

I heard a talk-show phone caller complain recently that the state government in Tallahassee doesn't understand South Florida. He complained that the underpopulated northern portion of the state had disproportionate power over the more populous Gold and Sun Coasts.

His remedy for the problem? Florida should be split up right above Lake Okeechobee, to create a North and South Florida, just like North and South Carolina.

My question? Put Belle Glade in the northern half, because east coasters sure don't give a darn about the Glades and its problems. The only time they even notice our region is when something negative happens or when some big-city media outfit wants to do a feature on the "Migrant Labor Problem, Part 203!"

If the east coast thinks it's getting trampled upon by other, more powerful groups, then I suggest the folks there walk a mile in our muck and see what being unjustly stereotyped and ignored is really like.

In my outings this week, I took in Bank of Pahokee Chairman of the Board Rupert Mock's retirement reception at the Pahokee Elks Club. It was a nice time, and I enjoyed talking to everyone and meeting Mr. Mock. I especially enjoyed the fine food.

As a relative newcomer, I've only been around here a minuscule portion of Mock's half-century tenure with Palm Beach County's oldest bank. So, I don't really know the man personally.

But one business acquaintance of Mock's told of how it was sad that a man of his caliber and compassion was leaving the banking industry.

"It did a lot to make this area grow," the man said. "And he was the last of the old school when it came to banking. All you had to do if you needed $500 or so was to call him up at night and ask. He'd say, 'Come on down in the morning and we'll take care of you.' And he did."

secure. We trotted on down the road toward the first gate.

From the time I first met Silly Sally, I sensed she did not appreciate me getting her into this at all. She kept looking back at me and rolling her eyes. Nobody else's horse was doing that. I petted her and remembered someone saying they were gentle horses. At least I thought I did.

About halfway to the second gate, I noticed Sally had begun to swing her tail up and down. I didn't pay her any attention until I started to feel scratching sensations on my back. I petted her somewhere.

Now if this horse would have gotten violent with me what could I have done? I looked down to the ground again. It was such a long way down, if I jumped off of her she would run over me! I was beginning to have second thoughts about being inquisitive and expanding my horizons.

"The ride won't last much longer," I assured myself.

I was right. Thank goodness. I was beginning to get really scared. As we headed for the gate that would take us home, Sally started to trot and I immediately panicked. My feet were not properly fit in the stirrups and I was starting to bounce up and down. Bouncing up and down on a leather saddle is no fun at all. I don't care how much padding you have, it hurts. I pulled on the reigns for Sally to stop, but she ignored my request and made some rude neighing sound in response. Sally quickened her pace to a gallop.

So there I sat. Bouncing up and down, holding on like there would be no tomorrow, screaming at the top of my lungs for someone to help me. I must have looked pretty funny during all of this because when we finally reached the ranch, Sally came to an abrupt stop and everyone stood there laughing at me.

With my dignity (and derrier) still in tact, I struggled off of Sally. She turned her head toward me wearing a smirk and glanced at me with glaring eyes. She thought it was funny too.

It was over. All in all I had a nice day despite the saddle sores. If you ever decide to be inquisitive and take on a new hobby such as horseback riding, remember you got it right here, right from the horse's mouth!

Just filling in

I had wanted to do it for sometime. Credit the late Dick Bothwell of the St. Petersburg Times with the inspiration, in his column, OAT, Of All Things, Bothwell on occasion did it.

In this business, we take a lot of pictures, including the notorious mug shot. A mug shot is a borrowed from police officers, which means face shot. "Mug 'em and print 'em." Joe Friday might say, meaning of course, get the suspect's photo and finger prints. This is either done right before or after the command "book 'em."

Our mug shots are not always flattering. I cannot even say they are flattering most of the time. Most of the time, they just tell the truth, which isn't what everyone's vanity can necessarily stand.

Photography is both a curse and a blessing. At one time, only the wealthy could afford to have their portrait made. First of all, they had to go out and find someone like Raphael, Titan, or Hieronymous Bosch.

I have it on good authority that they painted some of the ugliest people of the day, who just happened to have lots of money.

Leonardo Da Vinci's Mona Lisa, for instance, actually looked very much like Phyllis Diller in real life. And you always thought it was because of those hands and that smile.

When photography was invented - by some very vindictive people I might add - the world started becoming much more complex. No more could the image be so precisely controlled.

Photography came along too late to have any impact on George Washington. Even with his wooden false teeth, George Washington looks dignified, heroic, and patriotic in all of his paintings.

Abraham Lincoln, on the other hand, had his photograph made often. Although Lincoln ranks as either our first or second greatest president, he finishes up close to the bottom in the beauty category. This isn't to say that his portraits don't reflect the nobility of his spirit, the intelligence, and the eloquence. It's just facing the fact that the camera doesn't lie.

Which brings me back to why I got myself into this. At long last, I've found a picture of me that reflects me as I really am.

If you haven't noticed, it's in the Boiler Plate logo this week. Look quick, because next week it will be gone, replaced with the same old mug, which all of my friends will agree is a terrible likeness.

Trash pickup schedule

BELLE GLADE - The City of Belle Glade Superintendent of Sanitation, Anthony Williams, said the city's trash crew will be picking up trash in the Southwest section of the city beginning Monday, Mar. 30 through Friday, April 3.

Williams said he wishes to thank and commend the citizens of Belle Glade for cooperating with the city trash crews the past couple of weeks.

Williams said since the city began publishing weekly dates for trash pickup, the department has noticed a difference in trash being placed near the street curbs for pickup.

All trash which includes old furniture, clothes, shrubbery, and tree cuttings will be picked up.

Williams said large trees should be cut 4 feet or less for pick up. All trash should be placed nearest to the street or curb in each residents front yard.

Williams said he advises persons to place trash for pick up and or do yard cleaning the weekend prior to the pick-up.

Western Artist-Historian

The night of April 4 at the John Boy Auditorium in Clewiston will be a night to remember. Noted western artist, historian and lecturer Bernard P. Thomas will be bringing his original paintings to the Glades for display.

A Wyoming native, Thomas has had a studio in Boynton Beach for 25 years. His latest works include a series of paintings and sketches that document the journey of Lewis and Clark. Thomas has actually travelled the explorers' route, painting their exploration scenes on location, to capture authenticity. No artist was with the explorers on their 1804 trek, so his works are the only ones to capture that journey's awesome realities.

He has also constructed a 2,000 square foot cyclorama mural commemorating the nation's Bicentennial. The mural is on display in Rapid City, S.D.

Bernard Thomas is a member of the Society of Mural Painters in New York and the Grand Central Art Galleries.

Thomas is a true westerner -- quiet, soft-spoken; a tall, friendly artist, a rugged-realist. He will also present a program, The Provincial Journey of Lewis and Clark.

Occupancy rates fluctuate at hospitals

During the 1970s, the number of patients filling beds at Glades General Hospital and at Everglades Memorial Hospital fluctuated up and down, before finally ending on a downward note in 1979, according to the Health Planning Council 10 year report.

The downward trend in utilization of hospital beds was a problem faced by the majority of hospitals in five county area served by the council, including Indian River, Martin, Okeechobee, Palm Beach, and St. Lucie Counties.

Glades General started the decade with a 53.3 percent occupancy rate, which fell to 34.4 percent in 1978 before rebounding to 47 percent in 1979.

Everglades Memorial Hospital started the 1970s with a 59 percent occupancy rate, which dropped to 47 percent in 1978 before climbing to 55 percent in 1979.

John F. Kennedy Hospital's 85.6 percent occupancy rate for 1979 was the area's best, while Palm Beach-Martin County Medical Center's 25.1 percent was the lowest.

During the decade, Everglades Memorial showed a 27.6 percent increase in the number of admissions, while Glades General dropped 6.6 percent.

Average length of patient stay declined in both local hospitals during the 1970s. Average length of stay at Everglades Memorial dropped 27 percent from 6.3 days to 4.6 days. Average length of stay at Glades General dropped 5.8 percent from 6.9 to 6.5 days.

Emergency room visits at both hospitals increased. Glades General emergency visits were up 9.8 percent from 8,297 in 1970 to 9,118 in 1979. Everglades Memorial emergency visits were up 63.6 percent, increasing from 2,864 to 4,399.

Hospital beds declined at Glades General by 64.2 percent, while increasing by 63.9 percent at Everglades Memorial. Births at Glades General totalled 411 in 1970, compared to 147 in 1979. Births at Everglades Memorial totalled 468 in 1970, compared to 767 in 1979.

Mock saw his bank grow from a small farmer's bank to its present $24 million in assets, two offices (in Pahokee and Belle Glade) and automation. Bank of Pahokee is the county's oldest bank, the only one remaining in continuous operation through the Great Depression in the 1930's. It has remained independently-owned.

Grant—

Red Cross for Palm Beach County appeared before the Council to ask their support in the Red Cross drive to establish and office in the Glades Area.

Krinn said presently the Red Cross provides disaster relief, first aid classes, hospital volunteers in the summer, and school programs for citizens living in the Glades.

Last year we collected approximately $6,000 from the Glades and spent over $4,000 said Krinn.

Krinn said the Red Cross is planning a barbecue and fishing tournament in Belle Glade on Memorial Day to raise funds.

"We would like any assistance we can get or the referral to any organization or person that can help us underwrite some of the expense for the barbecue," said Krinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bull of Belle Glade are serving as chairpersons in Pahokee for a rate increase.

Krinn said the American Red Cross needs $60,000 to open a Glades office and although the barbeque will not net $60,000 said "it's a start."

The Pahokee City Council

agreed to support the Red Cross in the venture and looking into the possibility of participating in a bucket brigade against the City of Belle Glade fire department.

Jessie Hester signs with FSU

BELLE GLADE — Jessie (Jet) Hester, Glades Central High School's leading wide receiver and member of the Adidas All-American team ended all the controversy Thursday as to where the highly sought after speedster would spend his college days.

Hester signed a national letter of intent to play football at Florida State University Thursday morning with FSU recruiter Billy Sexton looking on.

FSU signed Hester to a regional letter in December, however for the past couple of months the University of Pittsburgh, Michigan, Ohio State and the University of Florida have been in contention for Hester's signature on the national letter of intent.

FSU signed Hester to a regional letter in December, however for the past couple of months the University of Pittsburgh, Michigan, Ohio State and the University of Florida have been in contention for Hester's signature on the national letter of intent.

Two weeks ago the Seminoles appeared to be losing Hester to Pittsburgh when Dickerson declared Hester was prepared to become a Pittsburgh Panther.

Hester said he told the Pittsburgh recruiter he was ready to sign with Pittsburgh but later changed his mind after thinking over the situation.

"At first I wanted to go to an out-of-state school because I thought the publicity was better and I figured I'd get a better education, but I was later convinced, anywhere I went the recognition would be about the same," said Hester.

Hester who caught 30 passes for 740 yards and 12 touchdowns and led the Raiders to a berth in the Class AAA semi-finals said his life is back to a normalcy that has been missing for the past months. "I feel better now than I have felt in weeks," Hester said.

THE BIG DECISION is all over. Jessie Hester signed a national letter of intent Thursday with Florida State University. Standing with Hester is his mother, Mrs. Zara Hester and FSU recruiter, Billy Sexton.

Glades Day has 2-1 week

Glades Day's baseballers won two and lost one this past week to bring their season record to 5-5.

March 19, the Gators won 15-7 over Kings Academy. Friday, they came from behind to top Boca Raton's John Paul 11-7. Tuesday, Clewiston beat Glades Day 12-4. All games were at home.

Tommy McArthur went the full seven innings against Kings, as his teammates clubbed 15 hits. Tobin Vancosy and Gary Herick each had homers, and Jason Shelton had a triple. Richard Schiele had three RBIs.

Tony Sanchez relieved in the second inning of the John Paul game with Glades Day down 4-3. The Gators came back and Sanchez got the win, largely due to Rich Burns, Tom Swager, Herick, Vancosy and Henry Alava's two hits apiece. The Gators got 14 hits in all.

Versus Clewiston, Swager had a homer in his two hits. Burns and Schiele each had two hits.

Today, Christian Day goes to the Gator's field at 3:30. Friday, Glades Day goes to LaBelle and Tuesday, Jupiter Christian comes to Glades Day.

AGLADES DAY GATOR slides under the tag of John Paul's catcher in home action Friday. The Gators won, 11-7, over the Boca Raton school. Glades Day also beat Kings Academy 15-7 Thursday. Travelling to Clewiston Tuesday, Glades Day.

Fishing tournament

to benefit Red Cross

Buddy Norris of Slims Fish Camp reports that he has already received applications for a fishing tournament to benefit the American Red Cross, though the event is still about two months away.

The May 24 tournament begins at first light and will conclude with the weigh-in at 2:30 p.m. The tournament is being fished out of Slims and J-Marks Fish Camps and anglers are allowed to travel anywhere on the lake by boat in pursuit of the day's top catches.

Applications are available at both Slims. Entry fee is $25 a person and the same rules which apply for the Black Gold Jubilee will also be in force for the Red Cross Tournament.

The top three anglers in weight of fish caught will receive cash prizes. Slims is also donating a trophy and $50 certificate for the largest bass caught.

The tournament is just one of a number of events planned to help raise money for a Glades branch office of the American Red Cross.

Jerry Kinnan of the American Red Cross announced at a Glades City Commission meeting that his organization wants to open a branch office here.

Cost of the branch office is estimated at $60,000.

Also planned May 24, which coincides with the American Red Cross' 100th year, is a barbecue dinner starting at 12:30 p.m., and a water ski show performed by Sunshine Water Sports Limited Club at 1 p.m.

Tickets for the barbecue are on sale at the Pahokee and Belle Glade Chambers of Commerce. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bull, Doug Wooten, and Angela Fug at the Glades Office Building.

The tournament is to be held on the lake by boat in pursuit of the day's top catches.

Glades Day wins 4 of 5

final tennis matches

By winning four of their last five matches, the Glades Day High School girls tennis team finished with a 10-3 regular-season record.

And that's still not as good as they did for the last two years, Coach Rita Schoenfeld said.

"The girls are doing really well. But we have a winning girls tennis tradition here. We only lost one time last season, finishing third in the district," Schoenfeld said.

Glades Day won the district in 1979.

"But we've been in the district finals every year since I can remember and I think we'll be in at least the top five this year," Schoenfeld said.

Three Gator ladies, according to Schoenfeld, have a chance to place in the top four in district play. Felissa Orduna, Cheryl Hooker and Deidre Ordonez.

The District Tourney is Wednesday in Ft. Pierce. Sixteen teams will compete to earn a berth in the 16-team state tournament. Top individuals will also go to state competition, regardless of team placing.

The girls play this year in contrast to the boys' final regular season record of 1-13-1.

The girls beat Clewiston March 19 in their final match, 6-1. The boys also downed Clewiston in the away confrontation, 4-3. It gave the guys their only win for the year.

Festival of Afro Arts: A time of coming together

MARCHING IN STEP

Two young ladies carry the Glades Festival of Afro Arts banner in the parade.

BY ALMA HENRY
BELLE GLADE — Black Beauty queens, marching bands, floats, echoes of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s famous "I Have a Dream" address given at the Lincoln Memorial, the Black National Anthem (Lift Every Voice and Sing), cultural dance groups, Black (down home) gospel music, soul food (collard greens, corn bread, black eye peas, chitterlings, fried chicken) Resolutions and donations in support of the Children of Atlanta and Judge Alice Hastings telling Black folks to come together all add up to success for the Second Annual Festival of Afro Arts held in Belle Glade Saturday.

"In the terms of number of people attending and participants in the Afro Arts Festival, the executive Board and the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority feels the festival is one of the most successful ventures the Black Community has put together for the City of Belle Glade," said Mrs. Celestier Monroe, director of the Festival.

"The citizens of Belle Glade should be commended for such a superb affair and the participation of many of the clubs, organizations and sororities that make up the community," said Judge Hastings.

"Cities in Dade and Broward counties have tried putting on similar affairs and have not met with the success you have, (the Glades Community) have much to be proud of," Hastings added.

As the day grew long, the activities increased, sentiments were constantly echoed this is one beautiful day, the coming together of that old familiar Black spirit, many thought were left on the shores of Africa many moons ago.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIE U. WALKER waves to the crowd. Mr. Walker was honored by the Festival of Afro Arts for 39 years as a teacher in the Palm Beach County School system.

VINCE WILSON cuts for the crowd at the Afro Arts Festival. Wilson is a drum major with the Pahokee High School band.

MISS GLADES Festival of Afro Arts, Ruebina Johnson and her Royal Court.

LITTLE BEAUTIES..

Miss Syria Frost and Miss Nikkis Harrell ride the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority's float. The AKAs won first place in the float competition.

IN MEMORY...The Glades Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority sponsored a car in the parade and collected signatures and funds for the Atlanta Investigation into the death of black youths.

THE BIG AND THE LITTLE..

The local Coca-Cola Bottling Company enter its music van and pint-size van in the festival parade.

Gospel Challengers

banquet Saturday

BELLE GLADE — The Association for Retarded Citizens — Glades Area will host a parent's meeting for parents of handicapped children and adults on Monday, March 30, Dick Byland of the National Association for Disabled Citizens will be the guest speaker.

The National Association for Disabled Citizens is one of the few companies in the United States who works exclusively on behalf of parents or guardians of handicapped individuals. The service of Byland's organization is to provide families with solutions to the complex problems of caring for the present and future needs of their disabled children.

Among the questions Byland will discuss are: Is a will needed? If so, what type? Do we need a trust?

Are government benefits available which we are not receiving? Should we have an insurance trust? Is this service only for the wealthy?

The meeting will be the ARC Facility located at 601 W. Canal St., North in Belle Glade (formerly St.
Peter's Lutheran Church).

The ARC encourages parents and guardians of handicapped individuals to attend for an informative session. Anyone with questions may phone the ARC office at 996-4335.

Final Black Gold Jubilee preparations being made

Stella Taylor's arrival in Belle Glade is less than two weeks away and all systems seem to be "go" for the Third Annual Black Gold Jubilee.

Peter Kirchman reported to the Black Gold Committee Friday, March 20, that "Mrs. Taylor is swimming and running" in training for the 25-mile swim and will arrive in Belle Glade April 6.

Mrs. Taylor wants to be the first person ever to swim the 25 miles from Moore Haven to Belle Glade.

"Everything is pretty well line up," Kirchman said.

Mrs. Taylor is expected to start her swim in the "middle of the night."

Saturday, April 11, and arrive on Torry Island at the Belle Glade Marina between 4 and 5 p.m. Sunday, April 12.

Mrs. Taylor, 50, made national headlines in October of 1978, when she attempted to swim from the Bahamas to Florida's east coast.

She stroked to within sight of land before having to abandon the swim because of rough seas and jelly fish bites.

Mrs. Taylor calculates that she will complete the swim at the rate of 1 1/2 miles per hour.

She will be staying in the Belle Glade Holiday Inn as the count down to the big swim begins.

Reportedly, she will be making personal appearances in the area during this time. Black Gold Committee members are also planning to ask her to ride in the Black Gold parade, which steps out from Glades Central High School at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 11.

In other business Friday, it was announced that plans are being "solidified" for an adult dance at the Elks Club Saturday, April 11, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The Association for Retarded Citizens is working on dance preparations. Admission will be $20 a couple. Though this is a bring your own bottle affair, cooler will not be permitted. Ice and set ups will be sold at the dance.

The Amarillo Band, the group which played at the Heart Ball recently, will provide dance music.

Dean Jones reported that press packets have been mailed to most newspapers, radio stations, and television stations in Palm Beach and Broward Counties, and to some in Dade, Lee, and Okeechobee Counties.

It was also reported that the official Black Gold Jubilee Booklet is nearing completion and expected to go to press the week of March 23-27.

The Belle Glade Jubilee meeting will be Friday, March 27, at noon in the Belle Glade municipal complex.

MOON OVER BELLE GLADE --Glades residents were treated to a full moon over Belle Glade Friday night, March 20. The huge orb slowly rose into the night sky, marking the last day of winter.

Mica invited to Red Cross activities

U.S. Rep. Dan Mica will be invited to the all day American Red Cross fund raising activity May 24, designed to raise money for a Glades branch of the national organization.

The invitation of Mica is just one of ballooning series of events being planned in an attempt to raise the $60,000 needed to open the new office.

Jerry Krinn of the American Red Cross made the announcement of the plan to invite Mica Thursday afternoon, March 24.

The Red Cross activities

fall on Memorial Day weekend and the National Guard and the American Legion have been asked to provide a program. One of the chartered aims of the Red Cross is service to members of the armed forces.

Although the opening ceremony is set for noon, anglers taking part in a fishing tournament will have been up since first light, trying to catch the big ones. A $25 entry fee is now being charged for the tournament.

A barbecue follows at 12:30 p.m., and tickets are available at the Belle Glade and Pahokee Chambers of Commerce as well as the Glades Office Building.

A water ski show is set for 1 p.m., followed by the weigh-in for the fishing contest at 2:30 p.m. Hang gliders make their appearance at 3 p.m., followed by a bucket brigade competition between local fire departments. Barbecue service ends at 4:30 p.m. and the day's activities draw to a close at 5 p.m.

One of the highlights of the day will be the musical entertainment provided by Skip and Debbie Lanhman of Pahokee.

A number of merchants are helping out and have provided prizes to be awarded during the day. Dan Mace has provided a rod and reel, Royals Department Store black and white television, and First American Bank a $50 savings bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bull of Belle Glade are serving as chairman of the event.

County approves CoTran grant

A federal grant application of $1,176,552 was approved Tuesday, March 17, to continue improvements to CoTran's the countywide bus system.

Palm Beach County Commissioners were informed at a public hearing that $577,700 would go toward the purchase of four new buses, primarily for use in the Glades through a Rural Transit Grant.

CoTran manager Irving Cune explained the funds would supplement federal monies received currently on urban bus routes and provide additional allocations toward rural service, now operated from the coastal areas.

He said the four buses and related equipment would cost an estimated $577,700 plus two years of operating assistance from the federal government at $598,852. The county and state would match $179,985 in federal funds with the balance, totaling $1,176,552.

Estimated costs of two

10-foot 45-passenger buses would be $300,000 and two 30-foot, 31-passenger coaches at $220,000. All four buses would be air conditioned and fitted with wheelchair lift devices as mandated by the federal government.

Input for the public hearing included recorded remarks by Glades residents at a March 2 informational meeting.

The commission vote was 2-1 with Chairman Frank Foster dissenting.

Final Black Gold Jubilee preparations being made

Stella Taylor's arrival in Belle Glade is less than two weeks away and all systems seem to be "go" for the Third Annual Black Gold Jubilee.

Pete Kirchman reported to the Black Gold Committee Friday, March 20, that "Mrs. Taylor is swimming and running" in training for the 25 mile swim and will arrive in Belle Glade April 6.

Mrs. Taylor wants to be the first person ever to swim the 25 miles from Moore Haven to Belle Glade.

"Everything is pretty well line up," Kirchman said.

Ms. Taylor is expected to start her swim in the "middle of the night."

Saturday, April 11, and arrive on Torry Island at the Belle Glade Marina between 4 and 5 p.m. Sunday, April 12.

Mrs. Taylor, 50, made national headlines in October of 1978, when she attempted to swim from the Bahamas to Florida's east coast. She stroked to within sight of land before having to abandon the swim because of rough seas and jelly fish bites.

Ms. Taylor calculates that she will complete the swim at the rate of 1 1/2 miles per hour. She will be staying in the Belle Glade Holiday Inn as the countdown to the big swim nears.

Reportedly, she will be making personal appearances in the area during this time. Black Gold Committee members are also planning to ask her to ride in the Black Gold parade, which steps out from Glades Central High School at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 11.

In other business Friday, it was announced that plans are being "solidified" for an adult dance at the Elks Club Saturday, April 11, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The Association for Retarded Citizens is working on dance preparations. Admission will be $20 a couple. Though this is a bring your own bottle affair, coolers will not be permitted. Ice and set ups will be sold at the dance.

The "Amarillo Band," the group which played at the Heart Ball recently, will provide dance music.

Dean Jones reported that press packets have been mailed to most newspapers, radio station, and television stations in Palm Beach and Broward Counties, and to some in Dade, Lee, and Okeechobee Counties.

It was also reported that the official Black Gold Jubilee Booklet is nearing completion and expected to go to press the week of March 25-27.

The next Black Gold Jubilee meeting will be Friday, March 27, at noon in the Belle Glade municipal complex.

slowly rose into the night sky, marking the day of winter.

Mica invited to Red Cross activities

U.S. Rep. Dan Mica will be invited to the all day American Red Cross fund raising activity May 24, designed to raise money for a Glades branch of the national organization.

The invitation of Mica is just one of a ballooning series of events being planned in an attempt to raise the $60,000 needed to open the new office.

Jerry Kran of the American Red Cross made the announcement of the plan to invite Mica Tuesdays afternoon, March 24.

The Red Cross activities

fall on Memorial Day weekend and the National Guard and the American Legion have been asked to provide a program. One of the chartered aims of the Red Cross is service to members of the armed forces.

Although the opening ceremony is set for noon, anglers taking part in a fishing tournament will have been up since first light, trying to catch the big ones. A $25 entry fee was being charged for the tournament.

A barbecue follows at 12:30 p.m., and tickets are available at the Belle Glade and Pahokee Chambers of Commerce as well as the Glades Office Building.

A water ski show is set for 1 p.m., followed by the weigh-in for the fishing contest at 2:30 p.m. Hang gliders make their appearance at 3 p.m., followed by a bucket brigade contest between local fire departments. Barbecue serving ends at 4:30 p.m. and the day's activities draw to a close at 5 p.m.

One of the highlights of the day will be the musical entertainment provided by Skip and Debbie Lantham of Pahokee.

A number of merchants are helping out and have provided prizes to be awarded during the day. Dan Mae has provided a rod and reel, Royal Department Store black and white television, and First American Bank a $50 savings bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bull of Belle Glade are serving as chairman of the event.
